ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Benson

Superintendent

Congratulations to the class of 1970. You have much to be proud of at this time in your life. You also have much to look forward to. May you be as successful in your years to come as you have been in the past. May you be strong in your faith and your convictions and may you do all in your power to make this world a better place in which to live.

To each of you, Good Luck and Godspeed in the years ahead.

Mr. Kenney

Principal

The years ahead promise dramatic discovery and change and you will be a part of it. Prepare now to examine problems carefully and consider responsible solutions. Society must operate within some system and constructive change and improvement are essential to the vitality of any system. Don't take yourselves too seriously. Maintain a sense of humor — it will stand you in good stead for the future.

Mr. Barresi

Assistant Principal

Mr. Emerson

Attendance Officer

Remember the expression, "If one doesn't get you the other one will?". Mr. Barresi and Mr. Emerson firmly but fairly supervise our discipline and attendance at NRHS

UNDERCLASSMEN

Miss M I hope you'll never forget all the fun we had this year. I'll never forget you or Patty. I want both were so great, and I want you to know so I can hope ever influenced that I want or Patty. I really hope will come back next year, and work on the plays, and if you don't at least keep in touch. Thanks a lot for giving me such a enjoyable year! freshmen

See you next year
Tom

P.S. Bring Patty with you.

To Miss Marano Never but never have I ever danced as much in my life as when you tried to teach me in the musical. I could never have made it without your help. Thanks
 Julie

Miss Marano - Agatha - Camille ~ You know it's been a long, crazy year but there are so many things I'll remember for a long time to come. My first time in a musical and who should be the choreographer but the greatest "Little" Sicilian lady this side of East Boston! You're such a good friend and I sure hope it stays that way (with your temper... oi gawdch!) I don't know how I can put into words all the things I remember and will keep on remembering from my contact with the sweet siren of Swampscott (such memories!!) Like the time you sang your way through a traffic jam in Boston (at the top of your lungs, I might add) or how you laughed so hard at Doug's 500 lb. canary Mr. Weisse had to speak to you. But probably most of all, I'll remember our great dance rehearsals and your patience with Thea. Even more than that (I could go on for years) Friday night's performance - who else would have held me like a sister until all the tears were gone? Thanks for just being there at times like these and I hope you're around for more. I'll miss you a lot (really a lot) if you go to Italy but I won't ever forget you - I hope you're around next year - actually more than "around" what I mean is I hope you're here next year because it won't be the same without you. Before I get too mushy or sentimental (which I've already done - c'est la vie) I'll say "see ya next year, gorgeous, if you're here!"

SENIORS black

P.S. Write to me if you go to Italy - 10 Orchard Dr. Say hi to your Mom, Dad, Patti. see ya next year, I hope.

bye for now, from the next

Robert J. Aiello

Bob's most vivid high school memory will be cafeteria food. Does he still remember "Plum Island"?

Brooke Alexander

Brooke must not be serious when she describes herself as always on time. With kidding aside, she says she will remember A.F.S. and the great people she has met.

Lawrence F. Allen

Wayne E. Allin

Mariangela Garcia de Almeida

"Ma", our Brazilian A.F.S. student, says that she loves life and will never forget the day she arrived in North Reading.

Donald S. Anderson

Don will always laugh when he thinks of the vice that broke in shop class. Was that good experience for when he becomes an aircraft mechanic?

Susan M. Arsenault

Cheryl L. Aunchman

"Cherry" was a curious and adventurous member of the Chickie Fan Club. She is interested in dress and interior design.

Carolyn A. Bailey

Carolyn will always remember her great times at the beach. She wants to work as a business secretary.

Julia E. Bakas

Julia says she will never forget football games and describes herself as being loud. She wants to work as a government employee.

Michael A. Bakas

Mike's N.R.H.S. memory will be of GREAT gym classes. Is that as big a joke as A.M.F.?

Walda Z. Bakoian

Talkative Walda can always be found in one part of B-wing during E-period. She hopes to become an airline stewardess.

Gary M. Balich

Anthony Barrasso

Gary R. Barnard

Christine D. Campana

Karen G. Bellino

Karen will always remember those great Friday nights. She is interested in an airline career.

Steven Benson

"Big Ben"

Carl R. Berndtson

"Stony", who lived on a tropical island for three of his high school years, would like to become a successful physicist or mathematician.

Karl J. Birkmaier

Carol L. Blazis

Carol will never forget the summer of '69 that she spent going to P.A. Her favorite N.R.H.S. memory was "serving Grand Fenwick under the double headed eagle." After college, Carol hopes to work as an elementary school teacher.

Michael L. Brown

"I'll try anything once!" Is that a good policy if he wants to become a veterinarian?

Paul J. Burbine

When Paul goes into the Air Force will he still be saying, "Burbine as in vine!"?

James R. Buchanan

"I'm shy." — Is he teasing again?

Robert M. Burdett

Rallies and our cheering competition victory will be remembered by Bob. He wants to become an airline pilot.

William R. Burdett

"How can I forget school lunches or Mr. Olivo?" Bill's goal is to be an engineer.

Sandra L. Burke

"Sandy" always has something to say. She would like to work as a public accountant.

Denise M. Butler

Denise seems shy, but as a dental hygienist, she is sure to shine.

Amy J. Byrnes

Cheryl L. Callahan

As Gloriana the Twelfth in our class play, Cheryl showed she was happy. She hopes that someday people will be happy to have her as their registered nurse.

Susan E. Campbell

... Attentive ... "I'll never forget my senior year."

Ralph J. Campillio

Ralph's sociability will help him to achieve his goal as a general manager.

Linda A. Carlson

Linda will always remember her senior spaghetti birthday. Her fits of laughter will be interesting when she becomes a school teacher.

Warren J. Carney

Warren thinks of his time on the work study program as the best of high school. He is interested in auto mechanics.

Andrew F. Carter

Andy's artistic contributions to our class activities show that he'll do well as an illustrative artist.

Joyce M. Catone

Joyce is definitely talkative. Were you talking alot at the East Boston Prom, Joyce?

Suzanne M. Chatelain

Sue claims to be a true, complicated Scorpio. She hopes to become a buyer for department stores.

Claudia M. Ciano

'Claud's' desire for the future is to change what needs to be changed and to be satisfied with it. One word can describe her: enthusiastic.

Steven E. Cirillo

Steve described himself as 'fresh. Is he being fresh when he says he'll remember N.R.'s greatest track team ever?

Paul A. Cogliano

Paul thinks he's absent-minded but his goal is to be rich.

Stephen P. Colella

Basketball practice is something Steve will always remember. His greatest desire is to be successful and never want anything he can not obtain.

Rita Conchiglia

Talkative Rita will remember Thanksgiving games, September, and summer. She would like to be an accountant.

Deborah A. Connell

Debby's senior year will always be remembered. She is interested in hair dressing.

Peter B. Connolly

Hey Pete, how about being a curly-haired, agreeable, quiet mathematician?

Barbara E. Conrad

Barb is easy going and loves life the way she makes it.

Bookoo

*Now Marissa for

Susan E. Conrad

I'll always remember E-period gab-sessions. Her desires for the future: to be a dental assistant and to marry Charlie.

Robert E. Cook

Bob will best remember the Junior Prom. He would like to be a certified public accountant.

Robert E. Correale

To Bob, winning the state baseball tournament was most memorable. His desire is to go to school and learn a trade.

Ralph P. Costanza

Ralph, a co-captain of the N.R.H.S. golf team, wishes to further his education after college by attending graduate school.

Christine G. Crescenzi

Chris values her East Boston summers. Her desire is to become a fashion designer.

*If you want

Glenn R. Crowley

Glenn will never forget two things: Chemistry labs and his time after the Junior Prom. He would like to become an industrial engineer.

Patricia A. Culleton

Summer weekends with 'the gang' will always be remembered by Pat. She hopes to become an airline stewardess.

Patricia A. Curtin

Pat is carefree and loves sports. She would like to be a high school math teacher.

Robert E. Dame

'Mink' says he will never forget when North Reading held the 1969 state baseball championship. His desire is to go to college.

Marsha S. Daniel

Marsha, a quiet person, wants to become a medical assistant.

Laurel E. Davis

Laurel is accurate in describing herself as agreeable and quiet. Otherwise, how would she have lasted through those snow, mud, and rain-filled band marches?

Dolores A. DeRosa

Catherine E. Devine

Cathy is quiet and sincere. Her artistic ability will help her to achieve her goal as a fashion designer.

Gordon J. Dickey

As Tully Bascom in our class play, Gordon showed that he is basically optimistic. As a lawyer, optimism will surely help him.

Stephen C. Downs

Donald J. Diaz

Allen A. Drinkwater

Allen says he will remember things from geometry classes to bomb scares. He describes himself as thrifty.

Susan A. Durie

Sue will never forget the chickie fan club. Does that have anything to do with her desire to become a licensed public nurse?

Patricia M. DuValley

Ronald L. Dyer

Ron's desire for the future is to become a mechanic.

Dale J. Eramo

Field hockey practices and New Year's Eve bring back memories for Dale. She doesn't know whether to become a baton teacher or an airline stewardess. How about twirling down the aisle?

Louis C. Ferratusco

Louis says that S.O.M.F. and Budweiser are meaningful to him. He wants to become a mason.

Dwight Ferrin

"... I've come to look for America..."
Dwight's desire for the future is to become a successful rock musician.

Carole J. Fiore

Carole is another one of those girls with a New Year's Eve memory. She hopes to be a math teacher.

Catherine R. Fitzmaurice

Cathy loves to see people smile. She did a lot of smiling when girls were first allowed to wear slacks.

David W. Florence

Dave enjoyed "fooling around at the Allen's house." He wants to be a welder.

Erlene E. Florence

Quiet, Erlene's future desire is to teach elementary school.

James A. Foote

Graphic Arts class held memories for Jim. He is going to be in the U.S. Air Force.

Gordon L. Forward

Gordon makes an understatement by saying he will always remember the Pax Vobiscum editorial page. His desire is to become a minister.

Jeanne M. Furey

Jeannie will always remember her dear old "D" period chemistry class with Mr. Gosse and the gang.

Donald L. Genzler

For Don, Mr. Sirois' ruler will be memorable. He is interested in mechanics.

Lawrence A. George

Anne L. Gessling

Gym classes and summer hold memories for Anne. She wants to become an airline reservationist.

James G. Gleason

"Rat" won't ever forget summer football practice. He wants to be a heavy equipment operator.

Phillip C. Gonnam

Steven C. Goodwin

Jane F. Gonsalves

Jane has said, "I'm a Tazmanian Devil!" On our class activities, she has displayed her artistic talents. Commercial Art will be a good field for her.

Carlene M. Gosbee

Congenial Carlene will most remember Lake Winnepesaukee and North Reading football games.

Through its programs, AFS hopes to develop understanding and respect between individuals, and mutual awareness of different cultures and ways of life, all in the framework of a significant educational experience.

AFS students attend high school as a senior and live as members of their U.S. families on the same basis as the other young people in the home. While they learn first-hand of many different aspects of our life, they also broaden our horizons by telling of their countries.

The Americans Abroad Programs were started by AFS returnees who wanted to offer young Americans the kinds of experiences which they had had. The Americans Abroad student is a junior or senior who applies through the local AFS chapter for one or both of the programs offered. The Summer Program enables a junior to spend 6-10 weeks during the summer, living with a family abroad. The School Program sends juniors or seniors to a country in the Northern or Southern hemisphere, where they live and study for a full year in a secondary school.

Before I arrived in the U. S. I was afraid. I didn't know what I should expect. But now that I have stopped to think, I realize how wonderful that experience was.

I was sent to the Paddleford family, who received me as a new daughter, giving all their help and love. I had smiles and the "Hi" of all the kids. I made friendships that made me feel so important. I saw the colorfulness of seasons and people and . . . I found, that in spite of different people, language and customs, I found hearts ready to give me love and wish me peace.

I already miss this period in my life.

Mariangela Garcia de Almedia

I am the first North Reading student to be accepted as an Americans Abroad candidate. For the summer of '69 I stayed in a village of the rain forest jungles in southern India, and lived as the daughter of a Hindu family, the Bhalchandra Madimans.

In their village there were no paved roads and horse carts were the major means of transportation. Because Hindus worship cows, we ate and lived on a diet of vegetable curries, rice, and water buffalo milk. Which according to custom, we ate with our hands.

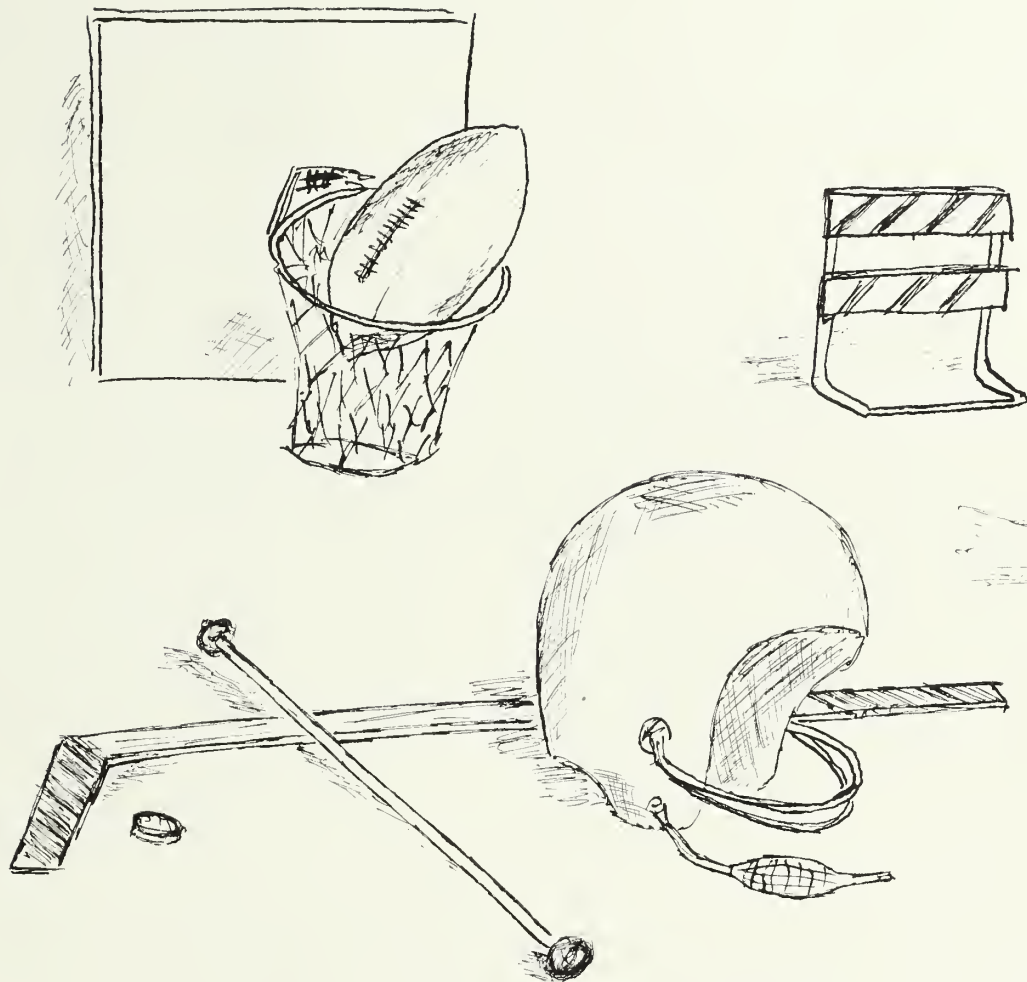

The mark on my forehead, called kum-kum, is worn as make-up by Indian girls. I am dressed in a sari, the common Indian dress.

My head is bowed in homage to "the God in everyone" with the traditional Hindu greeting, "Namastay".

 my dear Toots! (I said that wrong)
 my season
 Thank you for making this better year. So enjoyable for me. I wish I had known you as a freshman. I would have quit track + gone out for every play! you must Be a musical worker to teach me how to have enjoyment I had from the musical enjoyment I had from the work I will start with interest in school.
 From all your hard work I have developed an interest in school.
 I get true enjoyment out of it and hope to pursue it further. I will always remember the smart words: OK, folks become 3! (R how about "left, left, left," Yippa, chipa, chipa, my mother is a stripper. Thank you for these memories. Star at WKHS please they need you love

Agatha,
Even though I've just known you for half a year, I don't think I would have enjoyed anything if it wasn't for you. The time we went up to Lowell to see l'il abner. And the "Pops" I never knew until that nite why they called it the Boston Pops. Made me very happy. I You have really made me very happy as you always like being around you because your personality just makes me want to feel as happy & I will definately are. I hope you will keep in touch & I hope that through come up the Jr. High again to see you. I shall knowing you & have gained an experience that shall be forgotten. All those S.P. memories will be with me always too. Thank you for your friendship to me I will always hold it in my heart.

Love Always,
Doreen

(Bloody Mary)
(Stingy Bastard)

Agatha, we've from your relationship you have with your friends. I learned something. I must thank you for many lessons. I learned how to enjoy life, give and take of maybe as you said I will go our separate ways... friends. I learned the musical the great, wonderful friends we both made, my problems with Doug and what I learned from what I want in life and my relationships. So if there are all the memories we'll have or if we'll have more, in a matter, thank-you. Keep your smile, family, your nimble fingers and Frankie feet! I'll be back to see
Love
Claudia
